A letter to "Brother and Sister" dated 14/7/1915, from 25 George St. Paisley.

Dear Brother and Sister,

We were very happy your newsey racey letter and would like to reply in the same spirit but somehow the power to appear cheerful and happy and to say things to make you smile is all knocked out of us just now. It may come back again, but this week we are clear knocked out. We have just received our first card from our son after landing in France. He was not allowed to give us any news, only that he was well.

He left England last week a long with many thousands more and may be in the thick of it the time I am writing.

There has been a great army sent across to meet an expected great onslaught by the Germans in another attempt to crush the French and British army by weight of numbers. I don't think they will ever manage to do that and it may cost them very dear, for we have plenty of men and ammunition now.

The most anxious time comes when you have one of your own there and we don't know what a day may bring forth. We have another son going to inlist. He would have been away from the front only we kept him back.

I have other sad news to give you. Brother George's wife died on Thursday the 8th and was buried on the 10th. We know there was no bitterness for him, and it came just as we had expected. She was taken with another stroke and only lived about 16 hours after. George feels very bad about it. He is living with us just now and I think he intendes to break up his home and come to live premaniently with us. He will be made very welcome. All our family likes him and will do the best they can to make him feel at home.

Excuse me from writing at length just nowas thoughts don't flow very easily.

Yours Affectionate
Brother & Sister
John and Annie Stevenson
